

Donation & Sponsorship

Florida department of Agriculture & Consumer Services Registration #: CH17345

Thank you for your interest in supporting our local chapter of the American Institute of Architects. Allied Membership, Sponsorship, and Donations are great ways to stay connected to the Southwest Florida architecture community and support fundraising for student scholarships, community & educational outreach, and industry/family events. With over 200 active members, we continue to grow as an organization and strive to support all industry individuals.

ALLIED MEMBERSHIP - <https://www.aia.org/membership/national-allied-individuals>

Allied membership is separate at each level of the AIA: national, state and local. Supporting this local chapter with your membership will provide the most direct connection to the community where you do business. Allied Membership is open to individuals who are not otherwise eligible to join the AIA, businesses who support the architectural profession through goods or services, or simply those who have a shared interest in our built environment.

Allied Membership Cost: $275/year

Benefits of Allied Membership include:

- All member communications including notification of events from AIA and our industry partners
- Member pricing to attend all events, including continuing education and networking events
- Opportunity to present education courses at our monthly CEU & Brew events
